Dear Parent/Guardian,

Asalamualikum. I pray you are in the best of health and Imaan.

Remote Learning Curriculum

I would like to thank you for all the support you are giving your daughters with their learning at home, during this period of remote learning. I am sure that working together, we will be successful in ensuring that your daughter continues to work to the best of her ability over the coming weeks.

We are sharing this overview with parents to keep you informed about what your daughter is learning whilst she is at home. Teachers have provided a curriculum overview for the subjects your daughter studies, this half term, and which outlines the curriculum topic your daughter will be learning and the objectives of this unit. Please do visit the school website in order to view this information.

Additionally, we have worked hard to make learning engaging. Lessons such as PE and Food Preparation and Nutrition, for example, still retain a practical element, which needs to be carried out under adult supervision. However, if you are unable to provide supervision at home – teachers have provided alternative activities to ensure that your daughter is still able to take part.

Thank you for your continued support.

Yours sincerely,

Mufti Javid
Headteacher
