Where can I go for help and advice?

Where to get help and advice

Seeking help is often the first step towards getting and staying well, but it can be hard to know how to start or where to turn to. It's common to feel unsure, and to wonder whether you should try to handle things on your own. But it's always ok to ask for help – even if you're not sure what the problem might be.

You might want to seek help if you're:

- worrying more than usual
- finding it hard to enjoy your life
- having thoughts and feelings that are difficult to cope with, which have an impact on your day-to-day life
- interested to find more support or treatment.

This booklet contains information and advice about where you can access help and advice.

ChatHealth

Text the young people's health service

- A text messaging service called 'ChatHealth' is available for young people aged 11-19 years to use.
- ChatHealth is a confidential way that young people can text a School Nurse for any advice and support that they may need.
- School Nurses can provide help with a variety of issues including bullying, emotional well-being, sexual health, smoking and general health issues.
- A text message can be sent at any time, however the School Nurse will only respond between Monday to Friday 9-5pm. They aim to respond within 1 working day.
