

Oracy matters

Preparing YOU for success

'Time to Talk' Steps to Success

Knowledge is POWER

Time to... become an effective speaker and listener.

1 UNDERSTAND oracy and the power of talk

2 LEARN ABOUT formality and academic register language

3 LEARN ABOUT non-verbal communication

4 LEARN ABOUT persuasive language

5 LEARN ABOUT debates / discussion

6 ESTABLISH 'Time to Talk' rules

Preparing for #TimeToTalk

7 LEARN HOW TO 'Time to Talk' placemat

8 LEARN how to choose the best arguments

9 IDENTIFY effective speaking strategies/ debate strategies

11 SECURE UNDERSTANDING OF SKILLS

10 LEARN how to plan for a debate.

MISSION

ACCOMPLISHED

Today's session is about...

Re-capping what makes an effective/ineffective speaker in a 'discussion'?

Why are you learning this?

To prepare for group discussions.

What does it mean?

DISCUSSION:

a conversation between two or more people about a specific topic

Quiz time

Each quiz will help
you to recap your knowledge about communication

Odd One Out?

Read the following options. Click the one which is the odd one out and explain why? Click the correct option twice.

- 1 Don't have eye contact with the person you are talking to ✗
- 2 Use slang/informal language ✗
- 3 Interrupt each other ✗
- 4 Don't listen when others are talking ✗
- 5 Have eye contact with the person you are talking to ✓
- 6 Laugh at others when they are talking/sharing their idea ✗

This one is the odd one out because it refers to something you should do during discussion. All the other options refer to things you SHOULD NOT do during discussions.

On the next slide...

Click the features that make an effective speaker. If the box turns red, it is an incorrect answer. If it turns blue, it is a correct answer

Speaks using standard English

Mumbles when they speak.

The speaker has no eye contact.

Speaks quickly

What does an effective communicator do?
Click the correct options

Speaks quietly.

The speaker is clear and fluent.

Use the same gesture repeatedly.

The speaker is confident.

On the next slide...

Click the features that make an ineffective speaker. If the box turns red, it is an incorrect answer. If it turns yellow, it is a correct answer

The speaker uses gestures to express an emotion.

Varies the tone of their voice, emphasising important words

The speakers use gestures randomly.

The speaker giggles whilst talking

What does an ineffective communicator do?

The speakers use gestures to emphasise a point they are making.

Click the correct options

The speaker has eye contact with the audience.

The speakers fold their arms.

The speakers use gestures with no communicative purpose

The speakers use facial expressions to reflect what they are saying.

The speakers look down at the floor when talking.

Oracy matters

What should you not do during an effective
discussion?